

MEET THE COACHES

Varsity Head Coach-Andrew Hodson

Coach Hodson is in his 7th season as the Cougars Head Coach. Hodson is a native of Wabash, Indiana and graduate of Wabash High School, where played Basketball and Tennis. Coach Hodson earned a Technology Education degree from Ball State University, where he also served as a head manager for the Men's Basketball team. During his final year at Ball State, Coach Hodson served as the 8th grade coach/Varsity Assistant at Wes-Del Middle/High School. Upon moving to Bloomington, Hodson served as the BHSN Freshmen Coach (2000-01), JV Assistant (2001-02), and Varsity Assistant (2002-04). He served as the Varsity Tennis Coach (2001,2002) where he guided the cougars to two Sectional Championships. Last season Hodson lead the Cougars to a 14-8 record. Coach Hodson is married to his beautiful wife Sarah and they have 2 children, Grant and Claire.

Varsity Assistant Coach-Jeremy Swafford

Coach Swafford is entering his second season as the Cougars Varsity Assistant Coach. Swafford is originally from Ellettsville, Indiana, where he attended Edgewood High School. Coach Swafford recently served as the head coach at Lighthouse Christian Academy for 3 Seasons where he led the Lions to a school record 14 wins in his last season. Coach Swafford attended West Virginia University, where he ran Cross Country and Track for the Mountaineers. He earned a degree in Athletic Education/Physical Education in 1998. Upon Graduation, Swafford served as a tire carrier in the NASCAR Nationwide and Truck Series for 3 years. Coach Swafford is currently employed at Grimes Pools and Spas, where he is a landscape foreman. Swafford resides in Bloomington with his wonderful wife Amy and two daughters, Makayla and Allie.

Varsity Assistant Coach-Tim Hudson

Coach Hudson is entering his first season at Bloomington North as the Varsity Assistant. Coach Hudson has made coaching stops at Peru High School in the late 80's as well as Manchester High School as an assistant coach from 1994-1995. Hudson served in the Military from 1982-1992, while stationed at Grissom Air Force Base in Bunker Hill, Indiana. While serving in the Military, Hudson again served as an Assistant Coach for Peru High School. While at Manchester, the Squires, had an undefeated regular season in 1994-95, and finished with a #8 ranking. Hudson served as the Peru Girls Varsity coach in 2000-2002. Hudson currently serves as an Assistant Principal at Bloomington High School North, where he directs House A. Hudson and is his lovely wife Virginia, who reside in Unionville, Indiana, became grandparents this fall.

Junior Varsity Coach-Kevin Koontz

Coach Koontz is entering his seventh season at Bloomington North, and his thirteenth overall. This will be his sixth season as the head coach of the Junior Varsity. Before joining Bloomington North, he was the 7th grade coach at Jackson Creek Middle School from 1998-2001, and the freshmen coach at Edgewood High School from 2002-2004. Coach Koontz graduated from Bloomington High School South in 1995 where he played baseball. He earned a degree in English from Indiana State University in 2006. Koontz currently teaches Language Arts at Perry Meridian Middle School. He also works in the sales department for Indy Tractor in Bloomington during the summers. Coach Koontz and his amazing wife Tania live in Spencer, Indiana with their two daughters Kenadee and Addison.

JV Assistant Coach-Spencer Sandusky

Coach Sandusky is entering his first season at Bloomington High School North, where he serves as the Junior Varsity Assistant. Sandusky is originally from Avon, Indiana where he was a standout in basketball and football. Sandusky is currently in his final year at Indiana University where he is pursuing a Science Education degree. Coach Sandusky is currently student teaching at Owen Valley Middle School in the Science Department. Upon graduation, Sandusky hopes to find a teaching and coaching position.